Message from the Founder

In every corner of our city and nation, churches and mushrooming prayer groups are crying out to God for His mercy, and revival in America. God himself places great value on and deeply urges His people to pray. His heart longs for intercessors; yet several times in the scriptures He noted the shortage of them.

This cry goes far beyond an office or ministry. It is not something one volunteers to do occasionally, but rather a life given over to be lived out on a burning altar where the fire does not go out. This sacrifice produces a pleasing aroma and secure a favorable response from the throne of God. He is looking for those who will first stand with Him, then before Him to hear His heart on behalf of the people and the land until He makes it a praise in the earth. Of all the ministries, it is the loneliest, most misunderstood and discouraging work and yet the most vital. Intercessors do not simply offer prayers, but rather they respond to relenting and often overwhelming burdens straight from the heart of God.

For those of you walking this journey, please know that your time invested in intercession is never in vain. The same God, who told the Prophet Samuel that He is going to look for a king, sought through many potential candidates and chose you to engage on His behalf. Like Job, you have been considered. It pleased the great and mighty God who knows the beginning and the end to hand-pick and send you. Many of the people you pray for may never know the investment or sacrifice you made for them. God sees. Many of these people you may never know. God knows them. He, the Faithful One will reward you for your labors.

God is still looking, longing and patiently waiting for His intercessors today; those who will become the prayer they are offering. He is looking for those who will first stand with Him, then before Him to hear His heart on behalf of the people and the land until He makes it a praise in the earth.

Be encouraged. Be blessed.

Introduction to EGMI

Elim Global Missions Initiative (EGMI) serves as a catalyst for spiritual awakening and revival around the world. We come alongside churches, businesses, communities, regions, and entire nations to help bring about spiritual awakening, equip the revived, and provoke them into God's destiny.

We are raising an army of revival carrier missionaries who travel throughout territories and into the nations to work with God's people. Our mission is to help spread the message of awakening, establish prayer altars, and bring about unity in the Body of Christ. The goal is to see spiritual awakening and a mass harvest of souls for a transforming revival. All of this is being done with the trumpet sound of the fast approaching Day of the Lord.

EGMI Vision, Mission, Key Outputs, and Output Objectives

Vision

To see communities of effective revival carriers passionately pursuing the purposes of God in every nation, fulfilling the Great Commission.

"And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.' Amen." (Matthew 26:18-20)

Mission Statement

To raise, equip and deploy skilled, worthy and faithful priesthood representing nations and generations, who can stand before God with effective spiritual engagement on behalf of His purposes in the nations.

Key Outputs

- People awakened from spiritual slumber
- Clear understanding the purposes of God for them and their region
- Renewed covenant commitment to engage and fulfil that purpose

Output Objectives

A worthy priest can attract the tangible presence of God and is able to stand before Him and hear His heart. The faithful priest gives themselves wholeheartedly to answering the cry of God's heart. A skilled priest understands the grip of darkness over people and territory; is equipped with the wherewithal to contend with and prevail against such power; and, can open the heavens to draw the presence of God.

Lifestyle of Seeking God

Core Values

EGMI believes and is committed to the following core values:

- A Spirit-led lifestyle developed through regular worship, Bible reading, fasting, prayer, obeying Scriptures, and waiting upon God for “prophetic” insight in all matters.
- A lifestyle of integrity, both in public and private.
- A lifestyle that expresses God's unconditional love in word and deed toward all people.
- Building strong and fulfilling relationships as a priority in carrying out the work of ministry.
- The importance and priority of the local Church in God's plan and the oneness of the global Church of Christ.
- The importance and priority of the family in fulfilling God's plan for all humanity.
- The imminent return of our Lord Jesus Christ — we are committed to work in the most time effective way, warning and ministering to all, until the day of His appearing.

Code of Conduct

Personal Conduct

Students at EGMI are required to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the character of Christ. Every member must walk in integrity, while maintaining moral, ethical practices, and values that are conducive to the environment. Proper professional conduct on premises includes regular attendance, promptness, proper attire, and honesty. Any acts of deliberate misconduct will not be tolerated.

Prohibited

- The sale or use of alcoholic beverages, controlled substances, guns, explosives or weapons
- Smoking cigarettes, marijuana, or any drug substances
- Pets in the classroom or home, unless for medical or disability use (proper documentation required)
- Threatening or acts of violence toward EGMI faculty and staff or EGMI students

- Dresses with an open back and/or low cleavage (dresses with thin straps must be worn with a cover or sweater)
- Sheer/see-through tops without an undershirt
- Showing or flaunting pre-existing tattoos
- Navel piercings and nose piercings (prior piercings must be removed)

DIGGING THE WELLS
MINI-BOOTCAMP
5-DAY TRAINING

About

Digging the Wells Mini-Boot Camp

This will be a five-day training where the applicants will begin to transition prayer warriors into Intercessors. There is no record in the Scriptures where God called for “prayer warriors”. He did look for intercessors but found none. During this time, the applicants will learn how to dig deeper wells in their relationship with God that will lead them to a lifestyle of pursuing and fulfilling destiny.

Applicants should arrive the Sunday afternoon or evening, or early a.m. Monday morning. Commissioning and dismissal will be the Friday night following the last session. Departure will be that Saturday for residential delegates.

Life at the training centers will be established upon these three foundation stones:

- My life is not my own; it belongs to Jesus Christ.
- I live only to pursue and fulfil the purposes of God.
- I will submit to the Law of Love.

The lifestyle necessary to live out these principles follows. These will govern the day to day activities on the training center.

- A Lifestyle given to the word of God
- A lifestyle of praise and worship responding to the Word of God
- Deep communion and travailing prayer that births Gods purposes
- Prophetic insight e) Subduing/crucifying the flesh
- Spying on the enemy
- Assigning purpose to time

Upon completion of the training each revival carrier will understand and can model the lifestyle necessary to:

- Raise effective altars or repair broken altars anywhere in the world.
- Open the heavens and draw the presence of God on that altar.
- Engage in spiritual warfare to destroy personal darkness and its effects.
- Raise disciples who can engage in spiritual warfare to break the grip of darkness over territories.

Resources

EGMI students are provided with resources to expound and assist their learning for their various courses. Resources include access to the Hidden Treasures Book Store which provides books and materials to assist the students with homework, research, projects, and general studies. Internet access is also provided for students in the classroom as well as the ministry houses.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Student Orientation

Students who have been accepted into the program are required to attend orientation. This will give students an overview of the program and the rules, as well as introduction to the faculty and staff. Students will receive books for the required courses in addition to school supplies that will be needed for the semester.

Course Description

Students are required to attend all sessions scheduled each day.

Early Morning Interaction is a time of presenting oneself before the Lord. We expect that the Lord would have revealed Himself and the conditions to move forward that would require a response from the individual (such as areas of blockages, deep rooted idolatry, etc.) That time is to meet with the Lord and resolve any revealed issue. If there are none, then it will be a time to present oneself to the Lord as a child and then as a covenant partner, inviting Him and His manifest presence and His will to be done in that day.

Session 2 on Monday will be orientation. A time to assess the people's understanding of the subject; assess expectations and levels of faith.

Session 2 for Tuesday through Friday will be an introduction of a new topic for teaching, instruction, and discussion.

Session 3 each day will be used to handle submission to the Lordship of Jesus.

Session 4 each day will be praying into that position.

Course Schedule

Session 1	6:00-7:00 am	Early Morning interaction
Session 2	9:00-11:45 am	New topic presentation
Session 3	3:00-5:00 pm	Further unpack topic/ fellowship with Q&A
Session 4	7:00-10:00 pm	Model and pray into/through topic to breakthrough

The topics to be covered in sessions 2 and 3 are:

- God's Search for Intercessors
- Principles of Effective Intercession
- Understanding and Attracting the Presence of God
- Prayer that opens the Heavens
- The Lordship of God & Submitting to God
- Intro to Effective Spiritual Warfare

Attendance

Students must adhere to the attendance policy set in place by EGMI. Students are required to attend each session in the training and be on time to each class.
